

Tanzania Society of Agricultural Education and Extension (TSAEE)

Extended Call for 2022 TSAEE Scientific Conference and Call for Papers

The Tanzania Society of Agricultural Education and Extension (TSAEE) is a professional association drawing members from public, private, civil societies, non-governmental organizations, public and individuals. It regularly meets on annual basis to deliberate on policy and technological issues related to extension services and producers (farmers, livestock keepers, fishers) empowerment. This is achievable with support from members, Ministry of Agriculture, Ministry of Livestock and Fisheries Development, Presidents' Office Regional Administration and Local Government (PORALG), Sokoine University of Agriculture (SUA) and development partners.

In this year, the conference will be held from 29th to 30th November, 2022 in Ukumbi wa Vijana (Vijana Hall), Dodoma. It is planned to be attended by representative extension officers from all levels namely, Village, Ward, District, Region and Agriculture Sector Lead Ministries (ASLMs). Other representatives are from the Sokoine University of Agriculture, Non-governmental Organizations, Civil Societies, producers, Students, African Forum for Agricultural Advisory Services (AFAAS) and other individuals.

Overall theme: Improving Agricultural Extension Services for Enhancing Farming as a Business

Specific paper topics:

- a. Necessary conditions for Extension system to contribute in farming as a business
- b. Farming as a business for youth employment
- c. The Role of agricultural extension services in making farming as a business

- d. The role of research in attaining farming as a business
- e. Access to services along the agricultural value chain for enhancing farming as a business
